SCOUT REPLICA CATCHES FIRE AT CAMP AREA

The replica of Gettysburg's Peace Light at Valley Forge will be flameless during the National Boy Scout Jamboree there.

Members of the Gettysburg Exchange Club who built the Peace Light model, learned following their meeting Tuesday evening at Sanders Restaurant, Hunterstown, that the light had been snuffed out permanently after it set afire the half-size replica of the Peace memorial. The "Peace Light" was installed Sunday at Valley Forge to be the gateway for the York-Adams Boy Scouts attending the jamboree.

Eighteen local men took part in setting up the replica Sunday. Reports at Tuesday's meeting indicated that great numbers of spectators gathered to view the 24-foot high Peace Light model after the gas flame was ignited Sunday. The flame could be seen from all parts of the Scout jamboree area.

Fire Began
Reports here today indicated that the flame at 11 o'clock Sunday night ignited two small sections of the tower. The blaze was confined to those sections and was quickly extinguished by the fire department established as part of the Jamboree set-up.

As a result the tower of the replica was toppled — and two feet shorter than previously, when the York Adams Scouts arrived Tuesday afternoon to take up their tent homes for the duration of the encampment.

RATE INCREASE DENIED GAS CO. TUESDAY BY PUC

HARRISBURG (AP)—Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. of Pittsburgh has been denied authority to institute an immediate increase in natural gas rates totaling $1.523.000.

The company's request, denied yesterday by the Public Utility Commission, is part of a petition for an over-all increase of 6½ million dollars in rates of $47,000 consumers in 25 central and western Pennsylvania counties.

The commission also suspended until Jan. 15 and Jan. 22 increase proposals by Peoples Natural Gas Co. of Pittsburgh and North Penn Gas Co. of Port Allegany.

Hearings on the Manufacturers' petition will be continued, the commission said. The utility had asked that a suspension until Nov. 12 be lifted for the $1,523,000 part of the over-all increase. That much of a rise, it said, would cover the higher cost of gas it must pay.

Peoples is seeking increases totaling $1,269,149 for 248,000 customers.

North Penn seeks a $229,790 increase for 18,800 customers.

ASK CHANGE OF VENUE IN SUIT ON FATAL CRASH

A College Park, Md., truck driver and the Washington, D.C., owners of the truck have asked that the trespass action brought against them by Mr. and Mrs. John L. Fitz, Ortanna R. 1, and the Gettysburg National Bank be moved from the Adams County court to the U.S. District Court of the Middle District of Pennsylvania.

A copy of the petition to the U.S. Court was filed with the Adams County prothonotary on Monday.

Decision of the Middle District court on whether it will accept jurisdiction in the case brought as a result of the traffic accident of Dwight L. Strausbaugh, Ortanna R. D., on the Lincoln Highway near Cashtown, February 8, will be made later.

Place of Hearing
If the U.S. Court takes over the case it will be heard either at Harrisburg or Scranton. If the district court turns down the petition, the trial of the trespass action will be in Adams County court.

The case results from a collision between a car owned by Mr. and Mrs. Fitz and driven by Mrs. Fitz's father, Dwight L. Strausbaugh, with a truck owned by the Dixie Plywood Co. of Washington, D. C., and operated by Cleveland L. Fleishman, College Park, Md.

At the time of the accident, Strausbaugh, who was fatally injured in the crash, was driving south crossing the Lincoln Highway. Fleishman was driving west on the Lincoln Highway.

Ask Over $60,000
Bailey and Rupp, Harrisburg attorneys representing the truck driver and the owner, ask that the jurisdiction pass to the federal court because the action is between citizens of different states and "the amount in controversy exceeds $5,000."

In the original trespass action Mr. and Mrs. Fitz are seeking $1,735 which they allege is the damage done to their car. The Gettysburg National Bank as executor of the will of Dwight L. Strausbaugh asks, for the benefit of Charlotte W. Strausbaugh, widow, and Dwight L. Strausbaugh, Jr. and Kathleen S. Fitz, children of the late Dwight L. Strausbaugh, $1,906.76 for Mrs. Strausbaugh as the amount spent for physicians, hospital care and funeral expenses, and $25,000 for the widow and children for pecuniary loss in the future. The same action also has The Gettysburg National Bank, as executor, asking $30,000 for loss of prospective future earnings of Mr. Strausbaugh and $10,000 for pain and suffering.

Nab Marylander For Tipsy Driving

Marshall A. Morningstar, 40, Adamstown, Md., was arrested this morning and charged by borough police before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder with driving while under the influence of intoxicants.

Morningstar was stopped by auxiliary police in front of the engine house at 9:30 o'clock this morning when his driving caused them to fear for the safety of others, according to police.

The officers said it was believed that his car struck another vehicle and drove up on a sidewalk. Removed to the Warner Hospital by police he was, they said, pronounced under the influence, and then was placed in jail for a hearing Thursday.

He said plans have been made for her to travel on a MATS hospital plane from Frankfurt Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Frankfurt time. The plane will land at McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey.

The Red Cross will be notified of the anticipated time arrival of the plane from Germany. Major Schumacker said.

Miss Sherman had previously been listed in a news story as a junior at Gettysburg College. She completed the junior year this spring and will enter college as a senior in the fall.

Many Go To Highest Court

One participant at the hearing at the York County courthouse said the case might go to the U. S. Supreme court for final determination.

The NLRB issued the complaint against the company. However, it was stated that the firing of two employees by the company was upheld by an agent for the NLRB.

Attorney Horace E. Smith, who with Attorneys Thomas H. Reed and Charles W. Wolf, the latter of Gettysburg, represents the company, told the examiner the two were fired "for insubordination."

The next day, Sept. 21, 1956, six other employees who signed union membership cards walked off the job in protest. The company took the position that their quitting was illegal and that the company did not have to negotiate with them.

Seeking Back Pay

PRESENT CASE AGAINST 16 IN KNOXVILLE

By RELMAN MORIN
KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Federal attorneys set out today to unveil the evidence in the charges against 16 segregationists accused of forcibly interfering with enrollment of Negroes in a small-town Tennessee high school.

"This lawsuit is shaping history," a defense lawyer solemnly asserted in U.S. District Court.

The trial involving integration at Clinton, Tenn., High School, has been heralded as a major test of the U.S. government's power to enforce the Supreme Court order to end segregation in the public schools.

10 Men, Two Women

The jury 10 men and two women, was completed late yesterday. On trial are 15 Tennesseans, including a pregnant, teen-age housewife.

The 16th defendant is John Kasper, lanky, owl-eyed native of New Jersey. He is accused of coming to Clinton and stirring up the riots that took place when Negro students entered the high school.

Dislike Joint Trial

Kasper, like the other 15, is being tried for criminal contempt. All are accused of violating a federal court injunction against interfering with racial integration at the school.

But neither he nor the battery of lawyers defending the Tennesseans concealed their distaste for the joint trial. Kasper is represented solely by J. Benjamin Simmons, Washington, D. C., attorney.

Kasper told a reporter: "They (the other defense lawyers) came into this when they heard money was being raised. Politics and publicity were behind it too."

Trouble Among Lawyers

Robert L. Dobbs of Memphis, spokesman for the defense lawyers, said there is no coordination of any kind with Simmons.

Lawyers for "the 15" — as they describe themselves in court — claim there is so much "mass prejudice" against Kasper that the joint trial works to the disadvantages of their clients.

Four Negroes were among the 31 people examined for this jury. The government accepted two. The defense challenged them all.

Lines Being Drawn

Questioning by the opposing lawyers foreshadowed a major area of battle in the trial. U.S. Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford pounded at the candidates on one theme—respect for law, even when they disagreed with a legal order.

In swift reply, when his turn came, Dobbs asked whether the candidate knew the rights guaranteed by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. "Do you believe every person has a right to express his opinion about a law? Do you believe in freedom of speech, of the right to assemble? Would you grant those freedoms to these 15 defendants?"

LATHAM QUILTS RESEARCH JOB

HARRISBURG (AP) — Roger Latham, chief of research for the Pennsylvania Game Commission, is leaving his job Aug. 15 after 21 years with the commission. He reportedly was fired because of differences of opinion over the wildlife program.

Latham said he had often been "called on the carpet and bawled out" for answering newsmen's questions about his research work. He said he finally was called before John C. Herman, commission president, and fired.

Dr. Logan J. Bennett, commission executive director, declined to say whether Latham had been dismissed or had resigned. But he confirmed that the research chief would be leaving Aug. 15. Latham's salary was about $10,000 a year. He said he did not yet have another job.

Bennett, however, said Latham had received a number of job offers the commission couldn't match.

"He came to the commission and said that he would have to have such and such or he would go elsewhere. The commission told him to go elsewhere," Bennett declared.

Three Killed In Bradford Accident

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP) — A small plane overshoot an airport runway near Bradford last night, then stalled and spun nose-first to earth—killing three persons and critically injuring a fourth.

The dead, all of Binghamton, N.Y., were Everett Clayborne, 34; his daughter, Patricia, 11, and Joseph Y. Denny Jr., 34. Clayborne's wife, about 30, was listed in critical condition at Bradford Hospital.

Joseph A. Field, manager of the Harri Emery Airport, saw the craft approaching for a landing about 6:20 p.m. (EDT).

He said the four-place, single-engine Cessna overshoot the runway, then began climbing before it stalled and spun to the ground. The crash rammed the engine into the pilot compartment. The plane did not catch fire.

PHONE NUMBERS
BEING CHANGED

Metropolitan area type telephone numbers using both letters and numerals will go into use in Hanover and New Oxford Sunday, July 14, at 3:01 a.m. B. M. Free, district manager of the United Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, announced Tuesday.

The central office name MELrose will be added on that date to all Hanover telephone numbers and the name MADison to all New Oxford telephone numbers.

In addition to making changes in all Hanover telephone numbers, the codes used to reach Littlestown and Jefferson will be changed July 21. The new code for Littlestown will be 35 and the new code to prefix Jefferson numbers will be 76. Changes in the Hanover and New Oxford telephone number arrangements have been dictated by the expansion of Hanover telephone facilities. The company has just completed a major addition to the Hanover telephone equipment at a cost of a quarter-million dollars and a greatly expanded number arrangement was required. With a number change inevitable, the company elected to adopt the universal nationwide numbering arrangement which is designed to permit eventually customers dialing of calls from coast to coast.

New directories listing the new two-letter five-digit numbers will be distributed to all telephone customers next week. Changing of dials necessary to conform to the letter-digit arrangement has been under way for several months.

Telephonically, Hanover and New Oxford have been among the fastest expanding communities in Pennsylvania. More than 10,000 phones are connected to the Hanover exchange, an increase of 175 per cent in 10 years. New Oxford telephones have increased three and a half times in the 10-year period, from 357 to approximately 1,300.

Comedy Of 'Twenties'
Next At Allenberry

The Allenberry Playhouse at Boiling Springs will revive one of its most successful productions when "Cradle Snatchers" opens on July 15. It will run for two weeks through July 27.

This is the fabulous comedy of the roaring twenties with flapper costumes and plenty of laughs. The play concerns three wives who have a problem on their hands—their happiness. They grew tired of sitting at home while their husbands are elsewhere seeking a kick, and decide to have a little excitement of their own. One of the wives has an idea. They try it out and after hilarious situations and complications, they teach their non-domestic husbands a deserved lesson.

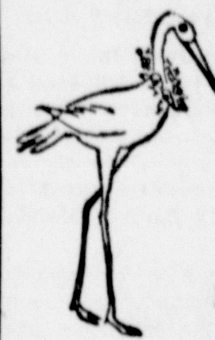

Elizabeth Council is returning to Allenberry in a featured role. Earlier this season she played the mother in "The Reluctant Debutante." On Broadway she was in "The Bad Seed" and "The Trial of Mary Dugan." Others in the cast are Betty Endrizzi, Virginia Donaldson, John Stratton, John McMartin, Reginald Rowland, Ed Aldridge, Dave Brubaker, Manny Lax, Virginia Leffler, Mary Jane Notlage, Gail Paris, Micki Mackey, Virginia Hamill and David Regan. Performances at Allenberry are nightly except Sunday at 8:40 p.m. There is a matinee every Wednesday at 2:30.

From the Files of the

The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Three Riders Hurt, Horse Dies
On Track: One horse fell dead as it finished the third heat of a race and three riders, one of them a woman, were injured during the July Fourth matinee races at Grist park, York Springs, Monday afternoon.

"Cochat," known to trackmen as the "guideless wonder," was being driven back to the finish line after coming in second in the third heat of the mile harness race when he collapsed and fell lifeless to the track.

William Natcher, Carlisle, who was driving "Cochat" for the owner, Charles McCaffery, Littlestown, escaped injury when the horse fell over.

"Cochat" was 27 years old and became well known in harness racing by reason of the fact that in his younger days he was placed on the track without a driver and won many races.

Three Burned July Fourth: Gettysburg observed the anniversary of American independence in quiet fashion Monday but the day was not without its quota of fireworks victims.

Hazel Booth, 10, of Springfield, Massachusetts, suffered burns on her left arm, and was taken to the Warner hospital where tetanus antitoxin was administered to prevent lock jaw.

Charles Shuman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ross Shuman, Broadway, was burned on the right hand when a fire cracker exploded prematurely. He was given tetanus antitoxin by a local physician.

A young man by the name of Collins, from Littlestown, was burned on the hand by a fire cracker at Natural Springs park, and was given treatment by a local physician.

Home From Fort Meade: Raymond Sheely, president of the senior class at Gettysburg College, who is attending the citizens' military camp at Fort Meade, spent the Fourth of July week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Sheely, 220 West Middle St.

Local Firemen Receive Award
At Fairfield: Fairfield's seventh homecoming and festival, sponsored by the Fairfield fire company, closed its four day program Monday evening with a large crowd at the grounds.

In the parade Monday afternoon Gettysburg fire company won a clock for having the most men in line.

40 Cents Is Paid Locally For First Wheat: The first of Adams County's wheat crop was sold here today, bringing 40 cents a bushel.

Ninety bushels of the new grain was sold by Edgar Wenner, Harrisburg road, to C. M. Wolf, North Stratton Street warehouseman.

According to Mr. Wolf the wheat crop in the vicinity of Gettysburg is of poor quality this summer due to damage by a pest known as the "wheat fly." The fly damages the wheat stalk, causing the top heavy plant to fall over.

County Gold Star Mother Visits France: Mrs. John M. Rider, of East Berlin, a Gold Star mother, will sail from New York City July 27 on the steamship American Importer to visit the cemetery in France where her son, Francis E. Rider, killed by a German sharpshooter in the Argonne drive July 15, 1918, is buried.

Local Scouts Are Attending Summer Camp: Boy Scouts from Gettysburg and Hanover, forty-six of them, are attending Camp Conewago at Dicks' Dam this week for the second of the four weekly camping periods arranged by the Gettysburg area scout executives. Among the scouts from Gettysburg attending are Cedric Tilberg, Mahlon Hartzell, Robert Hanson, William Phelps, Eric Lynch, Ken Lynch, Harrison Harbach, John B. Zinn and Donald Everhart of Troop No. 80; Clyde Little, George Olinger, James and John Kendiehart, Merle Guise and James Gilbert, of Troop No. 77 and Murray Frazee, E. W. Thomas Jr. and John Caskey, of Troop No. 76.

Today's Talk

INFLUENCE
I am of the opinion that influence is one of the greatest qualities any human being can have. To have influenced others and given them hope, comfort, and a happier way of life is to have been successful. History is but the narration of those who have had great influence in the world. Good influence never dies.

Many are the books men and women have written that have also influenced the thought of the world and given to posterity a precious heritage. Great books never die. They originally were men and women who put themselves into their books. My library shelves are alive with the books of my friends, many of whom I have never met or shall know in the flesh.

In our everyday life everyone with whom we come in contact has a certain influence upon us. I feel I know an author whose book has inspired me and given to my spirit a new life. Again and again I turn to those who have influenced me most. The town, or city, library should be the most important institution in a community. Books are friends. There cannot be too many good books in the world.

Influence is something that spreads and puts light into the world. Bad influence is destructive no matter where it exists. Great companions are those who influence us best and most. To this day I look back to all, especially to those who were my teachers in school, and bless them in my heart, and thank God for their memory and their good deeds and teaching when I need guidance and encouragement.

Let us be thankful for all our friends, for all the great books that remain our teachers, and for the influence they have had on our success and happiness. Like Shakespeare's little candle, influence spreads its light afar! It's something eternal.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Patience"

HUGE PRAGUE
CROWD GREET
TWO TOP REDS

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev and Soviet Premier Bulganin arrived in the Czech capital today after a 24-hour whistlestop train trip across Czechoslovakia.

The Kremlin leaders were greeted by Czechoslovakia's Communist rulers and a huge crowd mustered at the Central Railway Station.

Children of the Communist Pioneer clubs showered the visitors with flowers, and President Antonin Zapotocky in a welcoming speech said, "Czechoslovak-Soviet friendship is very close and rests on the will of the masses."

Prague was primed to give the Soviet Communist party boss and Bulganin full assurance that the purge of top Soviet leadership had not changed the loyalty of Czechoslovakia's Communists.

During his leisurely trip across the satellite nation, Khrushchev one speech described the purge with the pungent remark, "We took the black sheep by the tail and threw him out."

Talks Of Ousters
"It's no secret what happened in the Soviet Union recently," he told a cheering crowd of factory workers at Zilina. "We announced it ourselves. We had some black sheep in a good herd. They thought they would take over power, and you know how it ended."

Khrushchev praised Czech Communist chief Antonin Novotny, who accompanied the Soviet party on the 500-mile train trip from the border to Prague, as "one of the great sons of the Czechoslovak people." Khrushchev implied Novotny's job was safe "if the party is with us, and I am convinced it is."

The New York Times said diplomatic reports indicate Bulganin also may be on the way out.

Bulganin May Go
Harrison E. Salisbury, former Times bureau chief in Moscow, wrote that the reports indicate Bulganin and President Klementi Voroshilov deserted Khrushchev at a critical moment in the power struggle which ended in the ouster of Georgi Malenkov, V. M. Molotov, Lazar Kaganovich and Dmitri Shepilov.

If Bulganin resigns, Salisbury said, it might pave the way for appointment of Khrushchev's ally Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov, the defense minister and army chief who sided with the Communist party chief.

An Israeli radio broadcast monitored in London said there were rumors from French sources that Bulganin may be kicked out. The broadcast said the rumors listed Bulganin among those who supported the move to overthrow Khrushchev.

Says Molotov Is "Grotesquely Tragi-Comic" Figure In Russia

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Who was the most "tireless fighter for the peace and security of Soviet peoples and workers of all countries?"

He is the same man who tried to "blibk measures to relax international tension and consolidate world peace."

Who was a "true student and disciple of the great Lenin... a great theoretician of the party... merciless enemy in his struggle with antiparty elements?"

He is the same man who led an "antiparty group" in "direct opposition to the wise Leninist policy."

"Best Filing Clerk"

The praise for Vyacheslav Mikhailovich Molotov was printed in the 1954 edition of the Soviet Encyclopedia. The denunciation was in the statement last week pur-ing him from communism's top ranks.

Molotov at 67 emerges as a grotesquely tragic-comic figure. Lenin once described him as the "best filing clerk in Russia." He wound up with a super-bookkeeper's job, and has lost even that.

For the most of three violent decades, Molotov was Stalin's voice. He symbolized Russian distrust and suspicion of the outside. For 10 years he waddled through the patterns of the cold war.

Last Of Old Reds
The last of the real Old Bolsheviks now finds himself destroyed. He was the one man remaining in the Soviet hierarchy who could say he worked closely with Lenin—but he has become officially "anti-Leninist." The upstarts he watched unconcernedly through years of purge and plotting at last have overwhelmed him.

Old "Kamenny Zad (Stone Bottom)" they called Molotov for his reputation as a tough negotiator in world politics.

Winston Churchill once described him as a man of outstanding ability, cold and ruthless, whose "cannonball head, slab face verbal adroitness and imperturbable demeanor" cast a pall over postwar efforts to achieve a real peace.

Son Of Middle Class
He was born the son of a middle class clerk named Scriabin in a Vyatka province village in 1890. At 16 he was a member of the Bolsheviks. By 19 he was a veteran of czarist imprisonments and escapes. A coeditor with Stalin of Pravda before the Revolution of 1917, he was to become one of Stalin's "young men."

At 34 Molotov was in the rarefield atmosphere of the Politburo, helping his boss in the Tostky purge. By 1930 he was Stalin's choice for premier. In 1939 he took on the added job of foreign commissar.

He Turned Weak
Though Stalin evidently turned on him, Molotov remained faithful to Stalinism. But in the unending struggle for power, this stony man turned weak. He could not keep pace with the plotting. The last remaining Lenin co-worker in the hierarchy, he was humiliated by being forced to confess errors in interpreting Leninism. To assuage Tito to Yugoslavia, he was fired as foreign minister.

They gave him a job as minister of state control—a super-bookkeeper presiding over the accounts of government operation. Today he is in Nikita Khrushchev's debut column, and a poor insurance risk.

NEW YORK (AP)—Showgirl Barbara Hall, shapely Shakespearean scholar from Pittsburgh, boosted her TV quiz whinnies to $96,000 last night.

Miss Hall, 24, correctly answered a four-part question on Shakespeare on CBS-TV's "The $64,000 Question." Next Tuesday night she will try the $128,000 question. If she wins, she keeps that much and becomes eligible for questions leading to a maximum prize of $256,000.

Second Guessers Can Rehash Alston Strategy; Stengel's Crew Squeezes Out 6-5 Win

By JOE REICHLER

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Chicago's Minnie Minoso and Detroit's Jim Bunning and Al Kaline were singled out today as the 1957 All-Star Game heroes, but some critics attributed the American League's 6-5 victory yesterday to good breaks, poor National League base running and Casey Stengel's luck.

Each side scored three times in the ninth inning. A fine throw and catch by Minoso preserved the American's second triumph in the last eight years and Stengel's second success in seven All-Star games. Minoso's double in the top of the ninth drove in Kaline with the winning run.

The crowd of 30,693 witnessed splendid pitching by young Bunning, Baltimore's Billy Loes and Milwaukee's Lew Burdette, and fine fielding and timely hitting by Kaline and Minoso. They also saw several plays that will be second-guessed for many weeks.

Second Guessers

Why did National League Manager Walter Alston decide to let Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews swing away in the ninth inning? The potential tying runs were on second and first, and with nobody out, strategy cried for a punt.

Why didn't Cincinnati's Gus Bell stop at second on Chicago Cub Ernie Banks' one-out run-scoring single in the ninth which cut the American's lead to 6-5? Bell tried to advance to third and was an easy out on Minoso's throw to Boston's Frank Malzone.

Why didn't Cincinnati's Frank Robinson, who had opened the National's fifth with a single, run to second on Mathews' apparent line drive hit to right field? Instead, Robinson retreated after going halfway and was thrown out at second by Kaline, who made a one-handed stab of the ball on the first bounce.

Alston's Defense

Alston, who used all but four of his 25 players, defended his own action and that of his players in a forthright manner.

"I thought about having Mathews bunt," he said. "But Eddie has good power and is a left-handed pull hitter. With that short right field porch an inviting target I wanted to give him a chance to hit that long one for us."

Left-hander Don Mossi of Cleveland, summoned out of the bullpen to relieve Chicago southpaw Billy Pierce, got Mathews on a called third strike. Banks followed with a single which would have tied the score had Eddie advanced the two runners.

"Had I known Eddie would strike out and Banks would hit that single," the skipper of the Brooklyn Dodgers said with a smile, "I would have had Mathews bunt."

Ironically, the best pitcher of the day was Bunning, whom Casey nominated to start only because Cleveland's Early Wynn, his original choice, had been used Sunday.

Bunning hurled three perfect innings, retiring nine batters in succession as Stengel's crew built up a 2-0 lead against Philadelphia's Curt Simmons.

Loes also kept the National League sluggers from scoring during the next three innings while the American Leaguers increased their lead to 3-0 in the sixth—after Burdette had stopped them in the third, fourth and fifth.

It was while Wynn was on the mound that the National Leaguers first scored. Singles by New York's Willie Mays and Cincinnati's Ed Bailey and a pinch hit double by Bell reduced the AL's lead to 3-2 in the seventh.

Pierce Shelled

Pierce halted the rally but he was shelled from the mound in the ninth after the American League had opened up a 6-2 margin with three ninth-inning runs—only one earned—against Clem Labine of Brooklyn. Kaline drove in two and scored the other.

A walk to Stan Musial, May's triple and a wild pitch produced two NL runs with nobody out. When pinch hitter Hank Foiles of Pittsburgh singled and Bell walked, Mossi took over and struck out Mathews.

Banks' run-scoring single, on which Bell was nipped at third for the second out, caused Stengel to call upon his own ace reliever, righthander Bob Grim, to pitch to pinch hitter, Gil Hodges with Banks, representing the tying run, on second. The Dodger first baseman drilled Grim's second pitch on a line to left field but Minoso grabbed it on the run to end the game.

And so the American League won its 14th game to 10 for the National League in All-Star competition.

Midget Races Sunday At Williams Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa. — "Mighty midgets" will be brought back to Williams Grove Speedway this coming Sunday afternoon as the result of the tremendous ovation the crowd-pleasing "doodlebugs" received on the card presented on the oval last Saturday night.

A twenty-eight car field is assured for the six-event program which will be climaxed with the running of a 30-lap feature race starting the 20 fastest.

Winners of the season's three midget cards held so far, George Ponder, Lansdale; Bert Brooks, Paterson, N. J., and Johnny Mann, Brooklyn, N. Y., will head up a field which is also expected to bring back the following top-flight speed merchants:

Al Herman, Allentown; Ernie McCoy, Reading; Ed (Dutch) Schaefer, Floral Park, L. I.; Van Johnson, Bally, Pa.; Bill McCoy, Reading, Mass.; Len Dunca, Phila.; Dick Brown, Ashland, Mass.; Johnny Kay, New Britain, Conn., and many more.

On Sunday afternoon, July 21, Richwine will present the ninth running of the "All-Indianapolis Racing Classic," bringing in the championship cars and drivers competing in this year's "500" and the recent race in Monza, Italy.

Bobby Dillman, Elks, turned in a no-hit no-run pitching performance for his team in the local Softball League Tuesday evening, blanking Hess Antiques 2-0 in a fast and snappy game. He whiffed seven and preserved his shutout in the sixth by striking out Fuss and Sheppard with a runner on third with one out via an error, sacrifice and wild pitch.

The Elks tallied a run in the second. Small singled with one out. Boyd skied to left. Showvaker singled and Woodward walked to load the bases. Baker was hit by a pitch to force home Showvaker. The other run came in the sixth on a single by Small, an out, Showvaker's fly which advanced Small, and Todd's single.

In the second game the league-leading Vets staved off a bid for a first place tie by the Moose by triumphing in the second game 10-3.

After taking a 4-3 lead in the fourth with three runs, the Vets scored 10 runs in the last three innings on but two hits. Moose miscues playing a big part in the scoring.

Schachles Are Home In Alaska After Eventful Trip To U.S.

The Lawrence Schachle family that formerly resided near Biglerville are back home in Alaska after a lively time in California where Uncle Leo "kidnapped" the Schachles' two-year-old Timmie.

Canadian customs authorities were convinced there had been a kidnapping. Los Angeles and San Bernardino police had bulletins on radio and TV and even helicopters scouring the super-highways looking for the missing links in the family chain.

After vacationing in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and south to Florida, the family had driven cross-country and were coming into San Bernardino. The Schachles had been traveling in two cars. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schachle and three of the children, Larry, Kathy and Nancy, were ahead of Mr. Schachle's brother, Leo, who was following in the second car with "co-pilot" Timmie.

Headed For Home

Through the understandable confusion of California traffic, Leo lost sight of his brother's car. It was understood that all were to stop in San Bernardino to visit Mrs. Schachle's sister. That was fine, except Uncle Leo didn't have the address and Timmie wasn't very good at remembering where Aunt Gladys lived.

Leo drove on to Los Angeles where he alerted police to look for the remainder of the family while the Lawrence Schachles had the San Bernardino police do the same.

Wires (apparently not received in time) were also sent to Canadian customs. At this point, with very limited finances and with one two-year-old to feed and care for, Leo Schachle did the only thing possible. Home to Alaska!

Lacked Identification

Another small problem had arisen. Leo was without identification for Timmie. Timmie was without many of his personal necessities and, taking this into consideration, Canadian Immigration became suspicious.

This resulted in several hours "grilling" of the innocent uncle — now a kidnap suspect — until authorities became convinced the story was too confused to be anything but true and allowed the itinerant bachelors to continue homeward.

When Timmie checked in with his mother last week, he seemed none the worse for his experience. Uncle Leo was not available for comment.

Stanley Dancer, 29, of New Egypt, N. J., finished third among the nation's harness drivers for the second straight year in 1956.

Miss Naylor enlisted through the York Recruiting Sub-station.

Butler Says Drives Bring Slim Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four Democratic fund-raising drives this year have brought in "barely enough" to pay for normal operations of the party's national committee Chairman Paul M. Butler said today.

Butler said in an interview, however, that he expects drives in the last four months of the year to bring in enough to meet weekly payrolls.

A special plan will have to be devised to reduce the committee's two-month-old deficit of $660,000, he said.

Committee Treasurer Matthew McCloskey is considering two proposals: (1) ask 6,600 Democrats to give $100 each or; (2) ask 660 Democrats to guarantee to raise $1,000 each.

Maureen O'Hara Sues Confidential

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actress Maureen O'Hara wants a million dollars damages from Confidential magazine, which printed an article about her in the March 1957 issue.

Her libel suit yesterday said the article was false and impugned her character.

Her attorneys included Confidential's publisher Robert Harrison among the defendants and also named up to 3,000 John Does who sell the magazine at their stands.

Scott Frost, top 3-year-old trotter in 1956, was voted tops in the aged trotting division for 1956.

BIGLERVILLE HI "AG" STUDENTS LIST PROFITS

Biglerville High School agricultural students averaged a profit of $294.36 on their home agricultural projects pursued as part of their school course during the past year.

Most profitable enterprise in which the students took part was corn. Eight completed corn projects. From the 63½ acres they secured 3,791 bushels and made a profit of $3,606.43. Cost of the project was $1,872.10. Total income, $5,369.28. They estimated the value of their labor in the operation at $209.25.

Twenty-six swine projects showed a large investment and a relatively small profit. They raised 54 shoats and 19 of their sows had 119 offspring. Their total income was $4,999.99 but costs totaled $4,654.72 leaving a profit of $345.27.

Four of the students carried out small grains projects putting out 7½ acres of wheat and 21 acres of oats and made a profit of $407.65 on their endeavor.

Strawberries brought a profit of $626.78 to 11 who had 3.35 acres in the fruit. Five dairy projects including five cows and two heifers showed a $1,191.99 were fed by charcoal.

and four who raised five beef cattle shared a profit of $369.80.

Yield from the truck gardens operated by the youths included 9½ bushels of snap beans, 3½ bushels of beets, 72 pound of cabbage, a bushel of carrots, seven bushels of cucumbers, a bushel of lettuce, 7½ bushel of dry onions, 1½ bushel of peas in the pod, 25 quarts of shelled peas, 32 bushels of potatoes 48 dozen ears of sweet corn and 2,408 bushels of tomatoes.

LARGE STORES ON NEW BASIS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Large department and chain stores collecting more than $600 in sales tax every three months are required to file monthly returns under a new law.

The change, provided for in a bill signed Tuesday by Gov. Leader, is effective for the current month. The first monthly report covering July will have to be filed by Sept. 15.

At present quarterly and annual returns must be submitted to the State Revenue Department by all taxpayers. The new amendments to the law eliminate the compulsory annual return although they allow the department to require one in certain cases.

Under the old method the quarterly returns were filed by every taxpayer before the final day of the month following each calendar quarter.

The department said the amendments are aimed at getting the large payments from the biggest
